March 15 // 7:30 - 9 PM EST

Building Allyship

Join NAAAP National for a great conversation on March 15th at 7:30 pm ET for our Inaugural Inclusive Leadership Series. Our first event focuses on Building Allyship. In the wake of the Black Lives Matter movement and the rapid rise in Anti-Asian racism, building allyship and coalition among minority-led organizations is more important than ever. In addition, employers of all sizes are making deeper commitments to address inclusion, belonging, and systemic racism at work. This panel will feature NAAAP Leaders, Lauren Garces (NAAAP SD), Samson Lee (NAAAP Boston), Junann Lopez (NAAAP KC), and Christie Sithiphone (NAAAP Atlanta). Aurora Austriaco (NAAAP National Board) will moderate the discussion focusing on how NAAAP leaders build community partnerships with other minority-led organizations with NAAAP and outside NAAAP.

Women In NAAAP Negotiation Workshop - Two Part Session

April 6 // 7 - 8:30 PM EST and April 13 // 7 - 8:30 EST

Join the Women in NAAAP Committee for a two part Negotiation Workshop with Rachel Moore. Rachel Moore is an Adjunct Professor at the MIT Sloan School of Business and has taught in multiple arenas, including corporate training, executive education, and negotiation courses for MIT Sloan and the MIT School of Engineering. Rachel will be joining WIN to lead a two-part negotiation workshop.

The First Session (April 6th, 7-8:30pm) will cover the essential elements of successful negotiations, including tactical skills to shift interactions in favor of creating more value—to get more of what you want by knowing what to offer and what to ask for. Primary topics include: identifying key interests, generating creative options, and understanding the power of your alternatives.

The Second Session (April 13th, 7-8:30pm) will cover negotiating difficult conversations, including material on emotional triggers, power dynamics, and persuasion. Throughout this session we will translate material practical application in relevant situations, focusing on how we can bring our best negotiation and advocacy skills to be an effective ally.
